

Healthy Profession.
Healthy Australia.

Stop the sick tax

The government is imposing a new 'sick tax' on your general practice that means your GP will need to stop bulk billing you, increase fees or close the practice.

This will cost you more and threaten your access to quality healthcare.

Tell the government to exempt general practices from this tax. Visit www.racgp.org.au/payrolltax or scan:

RACGP
Royal Australian College of General Practitioners